

MEDIA RELEASE

Wednesday May 5, 2010 (Kitchener)

K-W Counselling Services presents “Celebrating Change”, a Speaker Series featuring renowned Canadians.

K-W Counselling marks 60th Anniversary with 4-part Speaker Series.

This series will feature 5 dynamic, celebrated Canadians who will speak on the subject of change, why it’s important, and how embracing it can change lives for the better.

First Speaker Event:	Craig Kielburger
Topic:	The 3 C’s of Change: Compassion, Caring, and Community
Time:	Thursday June 24th, 2010 at 6 pm
Where:	Bingemans Ballroom, Kitchener, Ontario
Details:	Reception at 6 pm • Dinner at 7 pm • Keynote at 8:30 pm

About Craig Kielburger: Craig Kielburger, who works with a network of more than one million young people every year, shares groundbreaking lessons on nurturing youth to care about the world around them. The address draws from The World Needs Your Kid: “How to Raise Children who Care and Contribute”, Craig and Marc Kielburger’s latest book and the eagerly anticipated follow-up to the New York Times bestseller “Me to We”. Craig demonstrates how small, everyday actions can make the world a better place. It will also show how those same small actions can have a lasting influence on you and the young people in your life. After all, it’s a proven fact that doing good for the world does a world of good for business, friendships, grades and self-esteem.

Upcoming Speaker Events:

November 11, 2010:	Clara Hughes , Olympic Medalist both Summer and Winter Games
February 2011: Date TBA	Rosemary Thompson , Deputy Chief of CTV's Parliamentary Bureau and Karen Redman , Member of Parliament 1997 - 2008, Kitchener Centre
May 17, 2011 :	Stephen Lewis , of the Stephen Lewis Foundation and Barbara Coloroso , internationally recognized Parenting Expert
